

Part 2

You will hear a journalist called Peter Smith talking about a trip he made to the Arctic seas around the North Pole. For questions 7–14, complete the sentences.

---

Arctic trip

After reading a book called

7, Peter decided to sail to the North Pole.

Peter says that when sailing in this part of the world, you feel as if you are

8

Peter says it is essential to have the necessary

9 on board to deal with problems.

In summer, the temperature of the water always remains

10 at the surface.

It is necessary to have

11 in the cabin.

The crew couldn't explain why there were

12 in the sea.

Peter was disappointed not to see any

13 during the trip.

People usually visit the area as part of

14 and see very few places.